“ Steve was truly such a great guy, that belly laugh that we all know and loved will be so missed. I have know Steve for at least 40 years, he would always stop and chat any time we ever saw each other and ask me about my family and then he would tell me aoubt his. He was very happy with life and very happy with his family.

I know this is hard on his family but just know how much he loved you all and those grandbabies, share all the stories you can with them , since I know there are so many.

Steve you will be greatly missed by all. RIP
