“ He was my great uncle. I am the Grandson of his oldest brother Olcen W. Brown and son of Olcen W. Brown Jr. I will never get over how much he looked like my grandpa. We met several times in Elkhart Indiana when I was very young around 12 I think then. I know O'Hairld was a good man and will be welcomed with open arms into God's house. My sympathy goes out to the entire family. God bless and keep you in this time of sorrow. Love from Roy and Ashlynn Brown (My daughter).

“ To My Great Uncle O'Hairld Family.

In visiting with my Great Uncle either at a Passing of Family members such as my Grandpa Brown his Brother in 1977; and most recent my Grandma Brown.

During Grandma Brown's wake Uncle O'hairld couldn't seem to stop looking at me from across the room, as I was in my Army Class A uniform, I imagine it brought back memories for him, some good and some bad.

Later I had a chance to sit with Uncle O'Hairld. I was Honored of this Great Man, this Warrior! He'd shared, stories of his time serving our Great Country during World War II.

I for 12 years have served our Nation as a U.S. Army SGT and am willing to give that Ultimate Sacrifice to defend this Great Nation and our Freedoms as he did all so many years ago.

I will forever remember our conversations that day before we parted ways and just before I was to deploy for OIF and War in Iraq..

Uncle O'Hairld told me One, Listen to that small voice! Two, Don't ever hesitate! Shoot First and keep your Head on a Swival!!

I tell my Soldiers these Words of Wisdom from a Great Warrior, Uncle O'Hairld and will pass it on Forever!

To my Brother in Arms, Warriors forever rest in Peace..

May God give his Family Peace during this time of lose I Pray in Jesus Name, Amen... Rest in Peace.

John Jr., Andrew and Kaylie e. Brown*
