May 25, 1931 - October 25, 2015

DESPOTIS, Olga

Olga passed Sunday, October 25, 2015. Loving wife of the late John Despotis; beloved mother of George (Vonna) Despotis; dear grandmother of Alyssa & Lea; loving sister of Antigoni (Christopher) Dafnides; dear sister-in-law of Lois (Gus) Pappademos; loving aunt of Joanne (Elias) Matsakis, Tina (Greg) Riemer; Paul (Nadia) Pappademos & Louis (Stephanie) Pappademos; and Great Aunt to many. As a child, she endured the ravages of World War II in Sopiki Greece. Olga was a highly valued secretary at McQuay-Norris. Everyone who knew her marveled at her caring nature, generosity, charm and positive attitude. She was a devoted mother and aunt, a tireless volunteer for her church and numerous charitable causes. Olga will be deeply missed. May her memory be eternal.

“ Dear George and family, I am so sorry for the loss of your mom & loved one, Olga. I loved to work with her as the fitness instructor at Cardinal Ritter Adult Day Care. She was an amazing soul, even as her mind & body started to fail. I feel certain she is singing and dancing in heaven with our dear Lord and all the family that went ahead of her. Know that my thoughts and prayers are with you. God's peace and blessings upon you all, Peggy Clarke-Hollabaugh

“ Dear George, Vonna, and family, We want to send our sincerest sympathies on the passing of your mother and grandmother. Heaven just became a better place as your mother was a truly wonderful person who placed her love for her family and in return that love was given back to her. Our thoughts are with you now during this time of reflection and loss. Zoe se sas, Jim and Elaine Nicholas Louis and James

“ Wow, what a beautiful lady who raised a wonderful son. She had to be the greatest Mom and George tell those kids they had a Grandmother who shared the Love of God and it is passed on to them. The sweet memories will be with you forever and her spirit remains as just her body got wore out and God took her to her real HOME for a new body and she is waiting for her loved ones. God bless each one in His peace.
