“ Ollie will be missed within our Civil War group. He always liked talking about history together, and I will remember his nice comments to my family at the various events we participated in together (as well as his dry sense of humor).

I remember one parade we did, where he did not want to ride on the float our group had, and so he had his scooter he decided to ride. He took and put a toy horse's head (like off of a plush stick horse) on the front, and a fake cluster of woman's hair on the back for its tail, and we teased him about being in the "cavalry" instead of our infantry unit. He also always did some sort of gift at our Christmas Banquets each year (like a calendar per family with various photos of our group at events throughout the year).

In closing, Ollie was always at events and meetings, and there will be an empty spot in our Civil War family with his passing. He was a unique individual who will be missed. Our thoughts, prayers, and condolences are with his family during this difficult time.

With Deepest Sympathies,
