

Pansy "Pam" McKinney

February 16, 1941 - April 16, 2025

Pansy "Pam" McKinney, 84, of Missouri, passed away peacefully on April 16, 2025, in Eureka, Missouri. Born on February 16, 1941, in Missouri, she lived a full and meaningful life rooted in family and creativity.

Pam was the beloved wife of the late Paul McKinney and the cherished daughter of Goldie and Thurman Statler. She was also preceded in death by her brother, Ray Statler.

A talented beautician by trade, Pam brought beauty and care into the lives of many. Her passion for crafting reflected her creative spirit and love for making things with her hands.

She is survived by her sons David McKinney and Richard McKinney; their spouses Christine McKinney and Tammy McKinney; her grandchildren Grace Griffith, Carrie Branson, Sarah Donahue (daughters of Richard); Elizabeth Lewis and spouse Justin Lewis, April Bridges and spouse Brandon Bridges, Ray McKinney and spouse Marissa McKinney (children of David); as well as numerous great-grandchildren including Hunter, Charlotte, Raylend, Harlan, Holden, and more who brought joy to her later years.

She was a long-time member of Fenton United Methodist Church.

May her memory bring comfort to those who knew her.

Pam's family does not have any services planned at this time.
