“ I have loved Mama since I was a small child! She used to come and pick me up from grade school and she would say oh my who dressed you this morning, I was notorious for putting plaids and flowers together and she would laugh and say well I guess we better go and get your clothes changed because your not going anywhere with me dressed like that! She would take Jr. And I to Holiday Hills which was an amusement park and of course she looked like she was going to a fashion show! She always looked like she just stepped out of a fashion magazine! Rest in Peace Mama, I love you!

“ I will always remember Aunt Imy because my mom loved her and always raised me to love her. She was crazy, feisty and definitely outspoken. She always reminded me that I was her namesake and called me "baby girl". I think when I was younger I was always in awe of her. I know she is celebrating with all of those who went before her. I can only imagine some of those conversations!! Rest in peace Aunt Imy!! We will always remember you!! Love, Gail, Keith and family!!
