“ To Pat's family, I'm so sorry for your loss. I first met pat at weight watchers in 1977, I was a new mom and she took me under her wing. She encouraged me on the weight loss journey and challenged me to be the best parent I could be. Our paths crossed again when I was the director of the peace pantry at a chance meeting at the grocery store. We talked for awhile about the need for volunteers at the pantry and she came to help out. Later Al came, a little skeptical at first, but he kept coming. They both were a blessing to the pantry and all the volunteers. Al always keep me on my toes.

“ My most vivid memory of Pat was of her being a strong Christian. I've heard pastors pose the question "If you were charged as a Christian, is there enough evidence to convict you"? There was enough evidence to convict Pat 10 times over. She was passionate about God and wanted others to know Him also. Pat's memory will live on in the many lives she touched through her witness and volunteer work where she always had a word of encouragement to those who need it. Truly a servant of God.
