

Patsy Ann Rose

March 28, 1947 - October 13, 2024

Patsy Ann Rose (nee Sankey) of St. Louis, Missouri, died in her sleep at the age of 77 on October 13, 2024. Daughter of Jane and Edward Sankey, Patsy was born at home near Walker, Iowa on March 28, 1947.

Patsy was preceded in death by parents Edward and Jane Sankey, sisters Betty, Linda, Sharon, and brother Garry. Patsy is survived by her son Richard and his wife Catherine; daughter Anne and granddaughters Lauren and Autumn; sister Lois and brother Larry.

Patsy approached life with a loving, generous, and mischievous attitude, and the role she was most proud of was being a mom. She made sure every kid that came into her house felt safe, heard, and fed. She fostered 26 kids of all ages, but every kid that came in that front door felt comfortable calling her mom. Her listening skills were unmatched, and she had a great instinct for not holding too tightly. She had a natural gift of teaching right and wrong by asking thoughtful questions, inspiring her kids to do the right thing for the right reasons. She made her son believe that he could be whatever he wanted to be, and she worked her tail off to help support his pursuit of an engineering degree.

Patsy enjoyed several creative outlets, including crocheting, woodworking, and painting. Her generosity of spirit and playfulness touched everyone that came into her orbit, and she will be dearly missed.

“ My heart is aching but at least I know we had so many moments just to enjoy each other. Special meals and chats and more. I'm blessed my husband shared his mom with me. Love you so ❤️
