two (2) siblings, Jean Smith & Cook Ayers,

several nieces & nephews,

along with numerous extended family and friends.

Patsy was a loving wife, mother, daughter, grandmother, great grandmother, sister, aunt, and friend. Her faith was strong and showed in everything she did. Bible study always brought a smile to her face and church was one of her favorite places. Getting away from home wasn't a bad thing either, traveling to explore new things and cruises to help her get there were just another one of her favorites. In her spare time, she crocheted making beautiful creations. Her laughter, advice, and stories will be in the hearts and minds of those she loved. She will be fondly remembered and dearly missed by all who knew and loved her.

“ I remember when I was little and we would spend the summer at her house and for lunch she would make us fried bolony and mustered sandwiches and Kool Aid. I sure do miss those times. Thank you and I miss you grandma! Love you always, Jason
