“ Dear Gil and family We were so sorry to hear of Pattys passing, and to miss the service. No one had kept us up to date on her condition and our paper did not arrive until 12:30 that day. I did share Patty's love of the theatre and went with her many times. We have many good memories of bridge club and Brookside. You have our deepest sympathy. We think often of you both.

“ Gil and family, We just read about Patty's passing in the Local Times. We are sorry to hear of your loss. Patty was so kind to our boys, and her Spring gifts of kites to our Patrick were always special as they shared their March birthdays! And Tim loved it when he would knock on the back door and ask to wind up to hear her music boxes. We still miss you in Glendale. Your friends, Chris & Matt Burrige

“ Alex, My deepest sympathy on your loss. Your mother was a beautiful and positive person. I remember the days when Amy and Matt would spend some time with your mom. Amy always thought she was the sweetest lady---which she was.
