“ Paul lived the glory of the wonderful car named PACKARD. His father's car-connection to that brand reflected in Paul's finesse and drive for quality in life. Paul was a delightful member of our regional club, Mississippi Valley Packards, which I headed for many years. He often came and spoke about his recollections and those of his father. Members of the club join me in offering heartfelt condolences on his passing. God bless!

Thanks for sharing Dr. Perschbacher! Dad always liked seeing that the Packard dealership building along Hwy 40 still maintained the name even after it became condos!
