“ Tracy, on behalf of all of the Kane family back here in Massachusetts I want to send our condolences and prayers to you on the loss of our cousin Paul. My brothers Jack, Rich and sisters Liz, Ruthanne and Sharon all remember the fun we had when Paul and his parents would visit us in Dedham. My mom Ruth was sister to Paul’s dad. Great times! I can still recall all these years later how good natured and fun loving Paul was as a young teenager. Although we have not seen him in many years and our families are all scattered about living in different places, please know that we are all mourning his passing and thinking of you.

“ You were loved dearly my “son”. Thank you for loving my daughter as she loved you. You brought so much joy and happiness to my life. I was so proud of you with your strength and courage that you faced each day with a smile and compassion for others. You brought a smile to everyone’s face . You have left me so many happy memories. Rest in peace from your “my mama”
