Paul loved the family farm where he grew up. He loved working the fields on the farm tractors and equipment. He also loved “playing” there as well. There were the annual skeet shoots the day after Thanksgiving and the hayrides he hosted every fall. He had witty responses for many things and so for him the hayride event was a “HEYRIDE” which he proudly posted on sign directing guests there. To many of those gatherings, he brought his beloved fiddle and always entertained us along with a group of his bluegrass loving buddies. He will be fondly missed by his family and many friends.
