“ I will always have a happy smile on my face and heart when I think of my sweet aunt! She was one of the pillars of our family and a great example of hard work, unconditional love, support, and just good through and through. The love she and my Uncle Carl shared was something all couples could use as a goal. Just the sweetest soulmates ever. My heart broke for her when Carl passed, but she was one strong lady and God needed more time with her. I am tickled that Carl and many others were there waiting on her with the poles ready and plenty of fish to catch! She is in Heaven and we are so blessed that she will be there to meet us at our time.

“ To my Dear Sweet Aunt Pauline, you were also a second mother to me and my siblings, never too busy to lend a helping hand, give a listening ear, attend all that was important to us growing up. In many ways you were like wonder woman, there was nothing too hard for you to accomplish. You were without a doubt the hardest working woman I’ve ever seen. When it came to cooking, you not only enjoyed it, but you were superb at it. The Best Cook from Arkansas and beyond! I am celebrating with you today, that you have been reunited with your beloved husband, my uncle Carl Walker and all your loved ones, family members, friends, that are with you in Heaven. I’m sure that Uncle Carl and you have a Mansion by the water along with other family from Arkansas that enjoyed fishing like you both did here on earth. I wouldn’t be surprised if you’re not next-door to Bernice and Eunice Walker and your other brothers and sisters. I love you Aunt Pauline, you will be missed, but never forgotten. Goodbye for now, but in the future, after I’ve stayed here till I’m satisfied, or the rapture takes place, which ever comes first, then I will be saying HELLO to you in Heaven, and we will have a lot of catching up to do, AND an eternity to do it!
