“ What an INSPIRATION Pheonix & her Mom are to the rest of us! Such a beautiful Angel inside and out! My heart aches for family and friends, yet I am rejoicing that Pheonix is no longer suffering...no one should have to endure so much...yet, she did, all while putting others ahead of herself...such an incredible, generous heart she had...she will be missed immensely, but she will never be gone...she will live in my memory as one God's greatest warriors! Until we meet in Heaven...

“ Pheonix was a big part of my family and loved by all of us. She called me Mom #2 which always touched my heart. My boys looked to her as a big sister and loved her dearly. My husband used to take her on "Father-Daughter" dinner dates just the two of them and that time meant a lot to him. Pheonix I am so sorry I could not get you up to the Nursing home because illnesses were always circulating there but I will donate as much of my time there as I can for you. I love you baby girl.

“ Pheonix, I met you at Highland Southern Baptist in Hillsboro. You told your story of the first arrival of Cancer and how you felt. You discussed how you felt why me? And your Mom, said why not you? This hit me like a ton of bricks during this visit. Your mother shows her strength and Christian Love, through how you coped with this Demon. You will be missed, but you have other work to do. Thank you for letting me know..

“ Pheonix was a special kind caring precious rare Angel who was taken way to early, but she is looking down with her wings spread wide and soring. I always knew from the first conversation I had with her that she was already an angel but she was hiding her wings and I am so blessed that I was touched by her courage, strength, kind caring spirit and because of that I was able to do something I did not have the courage to do prior. So thank you Pheonix Angel Spangler for showing me the way. thoughts and prayers to the entire family, friends, and her favorite bo. you will be greatly missed! love you girl!!

“ I look back and remember the first time I noticed the word Phoenix. I seen it on a T-Shirt while grocery shopping at Walmart. Not realizing it was someones name. Then there it was again, at another location. Different person, different shirt. Your name just started popping up all over the place. I knew this person must be someone pretty special. Well come to find out, I was right. I finally got to meet you for the first time at our church (Highland Southern Baptist). We were blessed with the opportunity to hear your story. So touching and so genuine. Phoenix when a young 14 year old can capture and fill the hearts of so many, from near and far. It says something about the kind of person they are. You my sweetheart are very special. we will most definitely miss that smile, but our hearts will forever cherish the memories. We love you Phoenix.
