“Mike and Mickie, my heart aches for you. I was shocked and heartbroken to learn of Chris" passing. I will remember him as a gentle and unique child, with smiling eyes and an easy grin. I can still see him working so hard to conquer that stubborn "p" in order to make it cooperate and face the correct direction when writing his name! I"m sure he grew into an equally gentle and kind adult, and I am so sorry for your loss.
