Randy always had a goofy personality bringing smiles to everyone he knew. He enjoyed music and played it as loud as he'd like from sun up until sun down. He listened to anything from ACDC, Aerosmith and Limp Bizkit. He had a love for cars, mainly his wife's Camero that he claimed as his own. Randy enjoyed fishing and spent countless hours with his kids at Lake Timberline where they caught catfish. Randy was a wonderful father, grandfather, brother and a loving husband. He will be fondly remembered and dearly missed by all who knew and loved him.
