“ We miss you Drew. There will be days when just for no reason I just break down & think of you. My children miss you. Even tho you all didn"t see each other often we have such wonderful memories of us being together as a family. Especially at Grandma Gin"s & the park. We will start telling stories & we are all just laughing thinking about the wonderful times we all shared. You are missed so so much. You were so brave in your battle and we will never forget your fight. You have given us all strength & made us wiser. We loved you deeply & miss you much. With love, Aunt Jill

“ Jeannette and Randy,

I am so sorry and wish I could reset the clock for both of you. As just going through the same thing and watching my mom being crushed to lose her first born child, I know that everyone will tell you it will get better. It never gets better but you will find, in time, that you will find a way to deal with what happen. Your family are my thoughts and prays. Jeannette if you need someone to talk too, please don't hesitate to contact me. I know how rough it is. Don't hide your feelings and cry as much as you need to, as it cleans your body and soul.

Love Always,

Donna
