

Richard D. Hart

July 31, 1937 - December 21, 2014

Richard D. Hart, age 77, of Hillsboro, Missouri, passed away on December 22, 2014, in St. Louis County, Missouri. He was born July 31, 1937, in Ashland, Ohio. He was son of the Late Delbert J and Mary Margaret Hart (nee Roller). Richard was a member of First Baptist Church of Hillsboro where he volunteered in the sound room, a veteran of the US Air force, former Police officer for Kingsville, Texas and Belleville, Illinois Police Departments, former Police Chief of New Athens, Illinois Police Department, and former deputy for the Jefferson County Sheriffs Department where he retired as a bailiff for Division 12.

Survived by:

Wife- Ginny Hart (nee Dahl), of Hillsboro, Missouri

Son- Douglas (Donna Davis) Hart, of Novia Scotia, Canada

Son-Steve (Michelle) Heidbreder, of De Soto, Missouri

Son- Jeff (Dr Laquita Graham) Heidbreder, of Fenton, Missouri.

Son- Brian (Kim) Heidbreder, of Hillsboro, Missouri

Son- Erick (Mary Stephenson, of Hillsboro, Missouri

Sister- Lee (Bobby) Doss, of Sunnyvale, Texas

Sister- Judy (Walt) Dorner, of Omaha, Nebraska

Sister-Karen (Dick) Bailey, of Port St. John, Florida

Also survived by:

12 grandchildren and 1 great Grandchild.

Preceded in death by:

Parents (see listed above)

Daughter- Tammy Hart

Previous wife- Judy Hart

Memorial Gathering January 3, 2015, from 1:00 until 2:00 pm at First Baptist Church of Hillsboro.

Memorial Service January 3, 2015 at 2:00 PM at First Baptist Church of Hillsboro.

Richard donated his remains to Washington University school of Medicine.

Memorials to First Baptist church of Hillsboro appreciated.