“ Richard Redding

“ 1970... A small town high school in House Springs, MO. I was a sophomore. It wasn't the best of situations for a skinny kid with curly hair. But I managed. And so did a long time classmate, Richard Redding. Richard passed this week, and he'll be laid to rest on Thursday January 24, 2019. I will miss giving Richard and his cue stick rides along Highway 30, as he ventured out to often make mince meat out of those who dared question his pool stick prowess. So long, Richard...May God escort you to the great billiard club in the sky!

“ I have saved this on my phone trying to decide what to say... You were a real character! Rest in Peace Richie, you will be missed. I do remember offering to do his laundry. When I went to pick up he had two 50 gallon drums full and a basket! That was probably the last time he had ironed clothes! My deepest condolences to his family.
