“ We are so very sorry to hear of Dick's passing from his good friend Joe..... Dick was always very kind to my Grandparents, and uncle, his neighbors at Lake Tishomingo... and to me when I lived with my grandparents during college. He was always looking after his neighbors, very kind, very generous to help, mowing, fixing things, and just very nice to talk to, a kind friend.

We wish all of the family and Joe his lifetime friend from grade school, our deepest sympathy and condolences.. Dick was a kind friend to many and won't be forgotten....

God comfort you all..
