“ Dear Bob

My eyes are filled with tears as I write this. I am so sorry I did not get the chance to drop by a Diet Citrus Green Tea for you. I have just learned today that we lost you. You were always so nice and welcoming. Thank you so much for all the copies of paperwork you made for me. I stopped and peeked in your office tonight as I was leaving Coachlight. I saw two wrapped muffins sitting on your desk. Fly high with the angels my friend. We will all miss you so much.

“ Dear Kathy, Amanda, Zach and families

There are no words. I've been trying to find them for days. My heart aches for all of you.

I do know that Bob, your husband, dad, and grandpa was exactly that. A good family man, with a sweet smile, always happy to be with his family and so proud of his children and their children. No better legacy than that.

I pray you find comfort in the love he had for all of you.

“ Kathy and Family, "I am so sorry for your loss" is too simple of a phrase to express the depth of my heartbreak for you and your family. Bob was a good man, a great father, and a loving son. As someone who spent years with him on a daily basis, I saw the devotion he had to you, Kathy, Amanda and Zack. I will never forget Bob had to leave the office everyday by 3PM to go pick up the kids from school because he did not want them to walk home by themselves for fear that someone would "bother" them...that is love and devotion.

He will be missed by many. I wish I had magic words to make your pain go away, but all I can do is pray for you. I pray that the Lord above, who took your husband, father, son and grandfather to be with Him in Heaven, give you peace and understanding in this time of hurt and grief. If I can be of help to you in any way, just ask. You are in my prayers.
