“ I remember uncle bob for his unconditional love. He was generous and kind, loving and compassionate. Uncle Bob would give you his last dollar to help you.

Uncle Bob Loved family celebrations such as Thanksgiving and Halloween and Christmas. He loved my boys Ryan and Alex. I remember the many things he did so that Ryan would have no trouble moving about in their home or participating in things that they had at their house. I remember when we brought Alex home from Russia how he videoed everything so that Alan and I would be able to sit back and enjoy the memories that were created during that wonderful time in our lives. I remember when I met uncle Bob for the first time when I was dating Alan he welcomed me into the family with open arms. I always knew I was family. I will miss his bear hugs and the love that he showed so freely

I have many wonderful memories. I will miss him. Dance with Jesus uncle Bob.
