two (2) children, Corey Elizabeth (Rick) Nappier, of Lonedell, Missouri and Tracy Ellen (Gerald) Maupin, of Lonedell, Missouri, two (2) grandchildren, Katie (Kent) Miller, and Justin Maupin, and many friends.

Bob was united to “his bride,” as he often referred to Pauline, on Nov. 22, 1952, and they shared more than a half a century together. Bob ran the family mechanical contracting business and made many friends throughout the St. Louis area. His greatest joy came from his family and the farm he shared with them in Lonedell, Missouri. After purchasing 70 acres of rolling hills, he spent countless hours making a home for his wife and daughters. He loved to toil on the land, constantly making improvements and becoming known for having a green thumb. His knack for foliage was only rivaled by his cooking – an art he mastered later in life. Bob often prepared meals for his family and sent baked goods to his grandkids, even when they were states away. For as long as he was physically able, his farm was manicured like a park and his family could always count on him for Sunday dinners.

Services private. Memorial contributions may be made to the St. Jude Children's Hospital, P. O. Box 1000, Dept. 142, Memphis TN 38148-0412.
