Wow! My heart is broken to hear that Ronnie is no longer with us. He and Lois were best friends with my parents. I have always called them My Uncle and Aunt. Ronnie love telling funny stories. He would tell funny stories about his trucking days. When growing up in Memphis while driving his big rig, he would drop by and say hello. Before getting back on I40 to head off to his destination. He and dad loved going fishing and hunting together. He will be truly miss. Love you bunches. God Bless the family. Thoughts and prayers are with the family. What a truly great person.
