“ The first and only car I bought brand new was with Roy's help...he did the negotiating and had it down to two cars at two different dealers. Well the one i wanted wasn't the one he thought I should buy so guess which one i bought? It was a very good decision it turned out because the last I had heard about it after driving it for years and years was that it had over 300,000 miles on it! But the day I got it I didn't even know how to drive it home because it was a stick shift! Roy drove to a WalMart parking lot, got out of the drivers seat and walked to the passenger door, looked at me and said, "Well, guess you better sit over there because you are driving us home!!" All the while grinning from ear to ear of course. He was so patient and never got upset once, even when i almost put him through the windshield with all my jerking and killing it. Guess who drove home that day? Yep, he taught me well!! Miss his laugh and that grin when he was teasing someone...you knew he liked you if he was giving you some trouble all in fun. I know he made my mother happy for many years and for that i am forever grateful....and also for some mad driving skills he instilled in me!

“ *My sincere condolences. Ed Garrett was Roy's high school baseball coach. As a pitcher himself, Ed had a real affinity for his pitchers. Ed considered Roy a good friend after Roy's high school years. I remember several times when Roy helped him with needed projects. Roy was a special fellow I am sorry your family has lost him. HE

“ Roy has been one of the sweetest people I know. He always was ready to let our family visit or crash with them at the lake. And, of course, teasing us. He was another piece of the puzzle in our family. He and Bennie made a wonderful couple and enjoyed life together. Definitely more of a brother than just brother in law. Someone we love and will certainly miss, Rest In Peace Roy, we will miss you
