“ *Even though Jim and I couldn't make the service, we hope your family felt us being there in spirit and through Jeana and Curt being there. I've been told that when I was little and started talking, I called him "Uncle Oy". I remember him always being a tease in some way. We thank you for sharing the video with us. Our hearts are more at rest knowing he is now at rest.
Peace be with all of your family,
Jim and Sharon*

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with all of Roy's family and friends. St. Martin and the community has lost another faithful member and saint! We pray for a meaningful celebration of his life and ministry. He was a true role model for all ages with the example he lived every day of his life!! It was an honor to be his pastor.

“ I am saddened to hear of Roy's passing. He was such a kind man with a beaming smile always ready for a good chat whenever they came into the store. You could see the love he had for his dear wife in his eyes all the time. They were one of my favorite customers and over the years had become great friends. Roy always asked about my grandkids. My deepest sympathy to the entire family. May God's loving grace comfort you all.

“ Roy was a very kind, gentle man that liked to hunt and play pinochle. He was very good at playing cards too. My mom made their wedding cake when they got married. He hunted at our place for years and enjoyed the great outdoors. Our sincere sympathy to Florence, Sister Venita and his family of children, grandchildren and great grandchildren
Sincerely, Grant and Joyce Glatt
