three (3) siblings, Warren (Hasseltine) Coats, Janie (The Late Jack) Flynn, & Nora Coats-Smith

many nieces and nephews

along with numerous extended family and friends.

Roy was a loving son, brother, husband, father, grandfather, and friend. As a Christian his faith showed through not only his words but his actions. As a member of the Central Baptist Church in Eureka he found more friends and family through Christ. His love for his country was never questioned. He served in Vietnam for over a year and was proud to be a Veteran. For 30+ years he worked as a Mechanic for Cummins. He was an outdoorsman and could never say no to hunting or fishing, especially if grandkids were involved! His family meant the world to him. Roy will be watching over his friends and family from above. He will be fondly remembered and dearly missed by all who knew and loved him.
