“ Roy will be dearly missed by all who knew him. He was such a kind and thoughtful person and always willing to help. I've got many happy memories of Roy and his family. Roy was in my wedding party and Dee was extremely helpful with many of the details. I only seen Roy get upset one time. We were having a fish fry and had a big pile of fillets piled up in a box. Jared reached for a picture of strawberry Kool-Aid, doing so he somehow spilt about half the kool-aid on top of all the fish. Roy wasn't happy. But we all had so much fun eating that strawberry flavored fish.

“ Roy will be sorely missed.
Great neighbor and role model for my kids.
He and Di are always an inspiration to those they met. Strong kind, highly intelligent gentleman with always something good to say, full of life, ready to help everyone at anyone he could and take care of the Rhodes so the rest of us could get out even when he needed to rest. He made a real impact on my kids. He and they were very supportive when my husband was suffering from cancer before he passed. TY Roy, rest in peace. I'm sure you and Jim and so many others are sharing stories in heaven.

“ I have a lot of very fond memories of Roy, Dee and the boys. Granted a lot of those memories include food! It didn't take Roy long after we moved to the hill to know just when to knock on the door each morning right as Mom was taking the biscuits out of the oven. Roy and his Family became members of our Family. Any event, special occasion, or any time he was needed he was there. Dee, Chris and Jared you are in my thoughts and prayers today and the coming days as you navigate through this difficult time. Sending hugs and love to each of you.
