“ At the age of 13, Russ was my first real employee down at the old Cedar Hill Hardware. He taught me everything about hardware, home repair of all kinds, inventory, and was somewhat of a father figure. After working for Russ, he remained a friend that I could visit or ask advice from all the time until his moving away from Cedar Hill. I can't count on my hands and feet the times that I have remebered to be grateful for having had the benefit to have worked alongside Russ as he helped so many with their home repairs. He has definitely made a positive difference in the my life and the lives of so many. A life well lived. Douglas Barnes
