“ I believe we all loved Ryan so very much. The chapel hill website has showed what I knew already. Thank you for your shared words. In these past many many years every acquaintance, friend, county official and old sports adversaries and friend's I got to meet with have thought a lot of Ryan and said he was a good man; even when he was breaking rules to help out his friends.

His bosses loved his excellent work and craftsmanship. I clearly feel the pain you have with his death. It's unfathomable, yet reassuring to know his trials her are done and he is truly in the good hands of our Lord.

In his own way Ryan stepped into places and situations maybe we all can't, and I am glad that when we all meet again in heaven Ryan's service will yield many a blessing yet untold. I love you son always ❤️

Prayers and thoughts continually for us he left behind for now. If you're not assured of your eternal future please come talk with me.

“ Ryan was one of the best friends anyone could ask for. 16 years of friendship and he always had a way to make the people and me smile. He was a great person. I have more pictures of him just have to find them all. I'm so sorry for the loss. He will be missed and always loved.

“ I am the mother of three of his friends. I came to love Ryan like one of my own. When my son Levi passed away, Ryan was there with hugs and encouragement for us all. I saw Ryan almost two weeks ago today at a gas station. I turned around and there he was. He said, "ohhh hey you love you so much!" As he wrapped his arms around me. We talked about work and his struggles and as always he promised me he was doing good. We parted with I love you and smiles. Just seeing him smile was such a great thing but being in his heart really was extraordinary! Thank you for sharing him with the world and know he brought light and love to many. My heart goes out to you all you will be in my thoughts often.

“ *Bill, Angie, David, MaryBeth. and Grandparents,
My heart is broken for you all. I have been in prayer for you all since hearing from Angie. Please know that this very special young man will be in my prayers for many days to come as will the rest of the family. I love you, Angie, and wish I could change the outcome. You are all very special people and are loved by so many. I did not have the privilege of meeting Ryan but feel like I know him from the stories Angie shared from his childhood. God bless you all! I will always be here for whatever you need!*

Much love and prayers,

Ann & Steele

“ Ryan has been a part of my family for many years. He was best friends with my brother Brandon and became a good friend of mine because of this. Even my parents loved Ryan like a son, they even had a nickname for him, they called him Shaggy because he looked like the character Shaggy from Scooby Doo. Ryan didn't really like to be called that, but my parents were persistent and I think he just got used to it and didn't mind anymore. Ryan spent a lot of time at our house over the years, just hanging out playing music and games. I'll never forget how good of a listener he was, if anyone had problems he was happy to hear them and try to help in any way he could. I hope all of you strength through all of this. I know losing someone so special isn't easy. I hope you find solace in knowing he is in a better place now and will be there for eternity. Thinking of all of you from afar. I wish I could be there to say a final goodbye, but I know Brandon will be there representing our family, and in that I have some peace.
