She truly defined “Family Is More Than Blood” – as she was mom and Nawnaw to not only her own family but anyone else that just needed love in their life.

“ Sandy was one of my best friends for years. she will be missed by many, especially her smile. She went through some tough times, but she was always smiling and making jokes about what life handed her. She helped everybody. I have such happy memories. I know she is with my Jenny in heaven and they are singing karaoke and dancing and laughing. I can't attend her service, but she is in my heart forever. God bless all her family because you meant some much to her. May God bless you and comfort you at this time.

“ When Susan Wenzel was out of town, I would drive down to pick her up from church. I loved our conversations during those drives. Will miss you "Fat & Sassy".....but am thrilled for you - to be able to move without pain or need of assistance & to be able to worship & laugh with Jesus - you loved people
