“ I know that many of us at Peace United Church of Christ in Webster Groves treasure the memories we have of Sandy and greatly mourn her passing. She was such a cheerful, friendly presence, always genuinely interested in other people, always a blessing to others. The photos are from January, 2020 when the Peace UCC Quilters were making Valentines for our annual sale to benefit Church World Service.

My condolences to Sandy's family. I knew her during the time she attended Peace United Church of Christ in Webster Groves Mo before she moved back to Union, Missouri. Sandy and I were good friends for a number of years and were social workers together at the Department of Mental Health in St Louis. She was a kind person, a dedicated social worker, and a wonderful friend. I can recall meeting her daughter and also her late Aunt Lee, whom Sandy admired and missed. I feel the same way about Sandy. Rest in peace, my friend.
