“ Sharon was and always will be my sister and aunt to my children. Sharon and I grew up very close. She loved taking trips to Branson. We took a few trips with her and we will always remember the tiny things that happened. It was the small memories that are the best. We will always love Sharon and we will always miss her. God needed another Angel in heaven. She is in great hands now. We love you.

“ Sharon was our sister in law, and always had a big smile and heart for everyone she knew. Even when life had her down, she seem to shine through. I will miss her little jokes and funnie faces she had when she got tickled. She loved her family deeply and we feel very blessed to have had her in our family. You are forever in our hearts Sharon.

“ Sharon was our closest sister-in-law and we shared many of the same family values. We joked, kidded, and knew what each others looks meant. Sharon was a very thoughtful, giving person; always giving Megan, my daughter, and myself little trinkets. She was an overwhelming good person and we will miss her deeply.

“ Sharon is my sister-in-law, she is kind, loveable, friendly and considerate. When you first meet her you have that instant feeling of likeability from her. When we were having conversation about anything, she never had a bad word to say, no matter what we talked about. She loved her husband and children dearly, we will miss her greatly, but remember her life on earth as happy, and life beyond just as happy, for there is nothing more gracious than living in the beyond life.

“ Sharon was my sister-in-law and was a very special member of our family. She lived in our neighborhood and attended the same school that my children attended. Sharon was a very thoughtful person, she was also a very sweet person. I have never seen her get mad or angry with anyone no matter the circumstances (even when my son drove his car into the side of her house), almost twenty years ago. Just this past Labor Day weekend at our family reunion me and Sharon were remembering that incident and the more we talked about it the more we laughed. Although Sharon is in another place now, she will never be forgotten and will be remembered forever.

“ Sharon was our daughter-in-law for over 24 years. We watched her grown from her mid teens, into an adult. She was kind and generous to everyone, with a gentle sense of humor. Craig and Sharon shared in all things, and were a close knit family. She will be missed every day, by everyone who loved her.
