

Sharon Kay Gorsuch

December 31, 1946 - March 31, 2025

With deep love and sorrow, we announce the passing of Sharon Gorsuch (Maddox) on March 31, 2025, at the age of 78. Sharon was preceded in death by her beloved husband, Oscar L. Gorsuch, with whom she shared a lifetime of memories and love.

Sharon is survived by her two devoted daughters, Barbara K. Novelly (Bob) and Cheryl M. Bellers (Scott). Her favorite role was that as a mama to her five granddaughters who brought immense joy to her life. Brittney (Josh), Brooke (Dylan), Natalie (Landon), Audrey (Eric), and Bayley. She was also a proud and loving great-grandmother to six great-grandchildren—five boys and one cherished girl.

A dedicated homemaker for most of her life, Sharon had a natural gift for caring for others. Her home was a place of warmth, laughter, and comfort—a reflection of the selfless love she gave so freely. Sharon's unwavering devotion to her family was her foundation. She supported them through every season of life with grace, humility, and an open heart. Her selflessness, warmth, and kindness will be deeply missed by all who knew her. Though she has left this world, her love continues to live on in the hearts of her family and friends—a legacy of compassion and care that will never be forgotten.

Sharon had a soft spot for her furry friends, Johnny and Franke treating them like family members they were. In lieu of flowers we invite contributions in Sharon's loving memory to be made to Open Door Sanctuary in House Springs.
