Sharon M. Harvey

Sharon (nee Davis) Harvey of Cedar Hill, Missouri, was born May 14, 1949 in Valley Park, Missouri to Lester and June (nee Stuart) Davis and entered into rest Sunday, June 7, 2026 in Cedar Hill, Missouri at the age of 77 years.

She is preceded in death by her parents, Lester Davis, June (nee Stuart) Sprock; Stepfather, Irving "Tooter" Sprock; husband, Milton "Mac" Harvey; siblings, Kenny (Wanda) Davis, Pat (Jack) Jerca, and Rita Davis.

She is survived by her children, Kim (nee Harvey) Statzer and Kevin (Tanya) Harvey; grandchildren, Brannan (Courtney) Harvey, Melissa Light, Billy Harvey, and Mackenzie Harvey; great-grandchildren, Paisley Light and Mac Harvey; sister, Tammy (Jim) Douglas; along with numerous other extended family and friends.

Sharon Harvey was a devoted wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, and friend whose greatest joy in life was her family. She firmly believed that "it takes a village" and lived that belief every day, opening her heart and home to many. Sharon helped raise not only her own children, but countless others who were fortunate enough to experience her love, guidance, and care throughout the years.

Alongside her husband, Sharon was dedicated to the success of their family business, Harvey Welding Services, which proudly served the community from 1979 until 2009. Her strong work ethic, unwavering support, and commitment to her family were evident in all that she did.

Sharon was well known for her cooking and for bringing loved ones together around the table. She possessed a wonderful sense of humor and was famous among her children and grandchildren for her own unique "vocabulary" of words and expressions. In her spare time, she enjoyed tending to her yard, sipping on a Diet Coke, searching yard sales for treasured knickknacks, and settling in to watch a good crime show with her loyal dog, Bow.

A proud member of the Cedar Hill Elks Lodge Women's Auxiliary, Sharon valued friendship, community, and service. Above all, she will be remembered for her generous spirit, loving heart, and the lasting impact she made on the lives of everyone fortunate enough to know her. Her legacy of love, laughter, and family will continue for generations to come.
