“ We lived across from Shirely for 13 years. My boys adored her from the time they were younger until she moved from her home. They often solicited and took otherwise advice. She was like the grandma that lived close enough to visit and talk to. She was never too busy for them. I cried the last time I saw her and she said "sweetie, I have had a wonderful life. Wonderful boys, wonderful family, and friends. What more could you ask for? t There is a special place in heaven for this wonderful woman. We dearly miss your smile, kind heart and wonderful stories.
