“ I am one of Sreeja"s aunt"s. When Sandra & John announced they were adopting a beautiful, brown eyed, curly headed little girl from India, our heart"s were filled with joy. Sreeja came to us, I say "us" because Sreeja was so loved by ALL of us. Sreeja was so loved by her family and her many, many friends. Sreeja was full of life, a caregiver in every sense of the word. And as many has said, her eyes and smile could light up a room! Sreeja was so special~~~so giving, so caring, so talented in her poetry, her singing, her art, not to mention her tremendous bongo playing! I will miss you Sree, and always remember the beauty of your spirit, the tremendous love you shared with so many and the memories you gave each of us along your life"s journey. The pain you knew in your life is healed now~~~~Fly Free Beautiful SREEJA.

“ I was so saddened to hear of Susan's far-too-premature departure yesterday. But because of the deep conviction of the nature and wonder of the spiritual world which we share, she won't let me stay sad!

I pray for Berlin & kids, and Kay, to be able to soon feel her comforting reassurance that will get you through your grief at this time. She has much to share with you now, and will be just a breath away--listen for her words, and feel her hugs now, even as she wants to share the joy of being in the arms of God with you all!

“ Dear Dale, Cathy, and Tanalyn:

We're so shocked by your loss. We remember your family well. Those were great times in Boy Scouts; camping, making crafts and general mayhem all around.

I still see Matt's big smile and sparkling eyes. He was a good kid.

We will pray for strength for your family as you gather together during this painful time.

“ Dear Dale, Cathy and Tanalyn: How my heart grieves for you at this sudden and tragic loss of Matt. What a fine young man you raised him to be. Always respectful, kind and honest--you must be so proud of him. Cathy, I remember years ago your telling me that Matt wanted to prove that a man could be a politician and still retain his integrity! I am so glad he was able to fulfill his goal of graduating law school. What a loss the world will know because of his passing.

I am praying continually for your family. May our Lord Jesus, who understands your suffering and loss, comfort you and sustain you with His perfect peace, a peace that passes all human understanding.

Love you guys,

“ Dear Cathy,Dale and Tanalyn,

My thoughts and prayers are with all of your family. Cathy, you were the perfect mom--always there to support and cheer your children on, but never stifling them! I remember all the wonderful times during Matt's and Tanalyn's kindergarten years. You gave Matt the best loving family possible and that's why he was such a caring, loving, person.May God wrap his arms around you and comfort all of you.
