“ My dear grandson Steven your birth was supposed to be one of the happiest days in our lives. Little did we know that God would take you away on the same day he allowed you to enter our lives. God only allowed your mommy to carry you for 21 weeks you weren't supposed to be born until June 2014. We were hoping you would arrive on your daddy's birthday June 13, but God must have needed you back in heaven for something really important because he called you back to heaven before we were able to meet you. My dear baby I cherish the time that our lord Jesus gave us to spend with you. We were not allowed to hear your cries, but God did give us the chance to hold you and we were able to kiss your tiny face, we all let you know how much you were loved and wanted by us all. Those few hours God gave us to hold you in our arms were priceless moments that will forever live in our hearts and souls. The bible tells us that God has a reason for everything a lesson there is to be learned! Although our family yearns to know the answer for his reasons, I pray we are able to accept the changes he is putting in front of us. I know that part of the message I received from all this is that I know that I must place my faith back into our lord and trust in him to guide me thru the remaining time I have on this earth. Because god only knows how much I long to hold and cuddle you again in the heavens above. Until we meet again my baby, I want you to know that Grandma and Grandpa Bahr loves you and we will meet again behind the gates of heaven, I can't wait to see you standing there waiting to hold our hands and run off to play together. All our love Steven Wayne Bahr III Grandpa Steven Wayne Bahr and Grandma Gloria Jean Bahr
