“ I am very late in knowing of Sue's passing. She was a remarkable lady and when I called her the miracle worker, only a few of us oldies knew the story. She will always be remembered fondly and the glory and freedom she is enjoying now brings me some peace with this loss of her here on earth. Duck, may peace be with you and may you feel the tremendous love she had for you still.

I have known Sue since 1985. Through the years, we had been very good friends to each other. We shared many memories together. We had a lot in common, as well as our love for all of our dogs!!! She may be gone but I have the comfort of knowing, I'll see her again in heaven!!!!
