“ I just found out today 7/21/13 that my friend died. Though, we didn't talk everyday or even in months, my heart is broken. Susan played a very special role in my life. She was open, kind, and giving. My memories of our children together will always be with me. Our friendship began when the girls were in my daycare class in Virginia. Our last visit was in 2011, I believe. I'm thankful for that time. My love and prayers go out to the girls as well as the entire family.

“ I taught Sophia as a freshman in Civics and Ancient World History. I met her mother in that role. Sophia is a wonderful and intelligent young lady, and I am certain that resulted from a wonderful and caring mother. I feel confident that Sophia's life will be a lasting tribute to her mother. Best for you and your sister. Peter Stragand
