“ My recent visit with Taylor was filled with love and admiration for such a lovely young lady she was becoming. Her sweetness was shining throughout as she played in Grandpa and Grandma Griffin's yard.- hitting the softball to her cousins - helping the younger ones with their batting. We all had such a short time here on earth with her and she will be greatly missed by 100s of family and friends! Peace and comfort to all. Aunt Cathy & Uncle Bill and Family

“ I coached Taylor on the softball field for many seasons. She was always a hard worker and stepped up to the plate ready to swing on and off the field. She was always a ray of sunlight no matter the circumstances. I will really miss seeing her run up to me and hug me because she always had the best hugs. Her energy could light up a team in an instant. She was one of the best.
