“ I met Terry and John while working at Walgreens in High Ridge. She would share her life stories with me while helping her make picture's. A photo would show on the screen and she would tell me about her family and her grandson. Through the years of helping Terry make her photo's I was blessed knowing just how wonderful she was. A very special lady who loved her husband John and her family very much. I was always happy to see her come into the store, we aren't suppose to hug the customer's but her and I always gave a little hug! If she couldn't make it inside the store I made sure I went out to see her in the car to say hello. John came to see me to tell me about Terry passing, I was so lost for words I could hardly speak. I will miss my friend!
