

Thomas Daniel Brennecke Jr.

October 21, 1991 - June 3, 2023

TJ as he is affectionately known, was born October 21, 1991, to Thomas Brennecke Sr. and Cheri Ouellette in Boca Raton, Florida.

TJ's life was cut too short, on June 3rd 2023 in an automotive accident.

TJ completed his formative years of education in the Parkway school district in Ballwin, Missouri. Upon completion he attended the local community college briefly, before jumping into his passion and career field of masonry. TJ had a creative mind and began working as a designer and installing custom countertops and cabinetry. TJ had aspirations of continuing to develop his skills in his profession in hopes of developing his own enterprise.

TJ was always the fun, jokester who was the life of the party, you would often find him making silly faces in photos or super animated as his favorite sports team took to the ice "St Louis Blues Hockey" yes, he was one of their biggest fans. TJ had a natural love for outdoor activities such as camping and float trips to name a couple.

TJ leaves to cherish his memories and celebrate his life, his parents; Thomas D. Brennecke Sr and Cheri (Robert) Ouellette, brothers; Michael and Robert Brennecke, girlfriend; Katie Fogarty along with family and friends who will miss him dearly.
