along with numerous extended family and friends.

As many know, Tom was a big family man. His children say he was “everybody’s dad”. He had the biggest heart and knew no stranger. He took giving the shirt off your back literally and always tried to take care of everyone he met. He could be a bit of a workaholic but in his free time he enjoyed the outdoors, hunting and fishing. Tom was a beautiful soul and loved with his last breath. He will be fondly remembered and dearly missed by all who knew and loved him.

Tommy is my big brother, my first memory of going to church was with Tommy, somewhere on Victoria road. In Hillsboro. I also remember Tommy being Baptised. What wonderful memory knowing he is in the Presents of our Lord.

“ Tommy to his family, Thomas and Tom to his friends...but dad and daddy to me. I have so many memories and I'll probably post a few. But today I want to tell you guys about the time that we were at the baseball fields in Cedar Hill. My dad was talking to someone and I couldn't get his attention and I wanted money for the concession stand.... so I bit him on his butt hard enough to draw blood. That's a story I had to hear him tell at least 100 of times. I'll continue to tell it.
