“ I first met Ed years ago when he started dating my mother Liz and we have kept in contact since her death which was hard sometimes because he reminded me of her. Ed was an amazing man and friend. He will always be like my step-dad and I am forever grateful for all the advice he gave me through the years. My thoughts are with everyone else who is also grieving the loss of such a wonderful man. I will always love you Ed and May you Rest In Peace, Kind Sir!

“ I met Ed when he started dating my mother years ago. He became like a stepfather to me, though they never officially married. I spent a lot of time with him and my mother going to Goose Creek, Kentucky Lake, and just him being with my mom. He was a fabulous man with wonderful qualities. I am heart broken to hear of his passing. He made such an impact on my life and was there when I needed him. After my mom passed in 2001, it was hard for him and I to be around each other because we both reminded each other of my mom but I received sporadic emails through the years. I am glad to know that he moved on from the tragedy of my mothers death. I will miss him always and will keep the rest of his family in my prayers,I will be grieving as you all do.

“ Jim so enjoyed telling stories about the meetings at the law office. They, Jim, Ed, Norb Scharnhorst, Floyd Norrick and Mike Huskey, called themselves

"The Elders" and had quite the adventures to recall.

Rest in peace, Ed; rest in peace.
