“ Nick, I was 13 years old when i first met you. I remember you were always smiling and joking around with everyone. As I got older I had two kids and didnt see you for years. Then about 3 years ago i saw you with my cusin danielle, you didnt forget me and said wow you grew up huh?.. You were always fun to be around! This past summer we were all out at summerset swimming, and i remember daniel said something across the lake and you started laughing, and said you gotta love him, i said yea i do love him and you told me that Daniel loves me you could tell! I WONT ever forget you, and you will always be apart of our family!! RIP

“ The first memory I have of you is when you had that red ford truck and we was going to your parents house and it was raining the water was up at the little bridge in their drive way and you looked at Chrissy and said "Can I?!" she nodded and you drove to the side of the bridge and went through the water the water came up to the doors..lol I am sorry i havent seen you in the last 2 years life was hard at that time you know how it was. You will be missed and always loved. My prayers and heart goes out to you Chrissy, Emily, Ben, and Noah.

“ Nick, I remember the day my sister told me she was pregnant the first time and the day you two got married. She was so happy. You put a light in my sister that no one else on this planet could have lit. You were the brother I always wanted and you will forever be in my heart. Your constant smile will always be the first thing I think about when I think of you. We were so blessed to have you in our lives and I can't wait to give you a big hug when I see you again after this life is over. I love you, Nick. Thank you for the happiness you gave my family.
