“ My heartfelt sympathy to Miss T's family. I worked along side her at Blue Cross and have not known a more caring person. I was amazed at her desire to learn to play the piano in her later years and actually do a recital with younger children. Rest in peace dear Miss T

“ I cannot express my sorrow. I have work with so many nurses in my life time and Ms. T was exceptional. She was my mentor, my friend and my sanity during many ups and downs at the Community Health Center. She brought me lemons, flowers and Paul made BBQ ribs for my dinner. I was just thinking of her last weekend and thought I must send her a note to let her know what an exceptional nurse she was and how much I learned from her. I am so sorry that I didn't get the chance to tell her. What a lovely woman. Thank you Ms. T for enriching my life.

“ I had the pleasure of working with Ms. T and I can honestly say she was the best supervisor I ever had, her sweet and caring personality always lit up the office. Not only was Ms. T my supervisor but she was also a motherly figure who gave the best advice and guidance with her wisdom. I feel truly blessed to have known such a wonderful woman and my thoughts, prayers, and condolences go out to Ms. T's family. I will miss you dearly Ms. T god bless.

“ My thoughts and prayers are with your family. Ms. T was a very special friend to me and more of a motherly figure. I loved her dearly, and I will never forget such a kind beautiful woman. Her words of encouragement she shared with me that will be in my heart for many years. She loved a great purse with a matching pair of shoes! We shared great laughs, and she always spoke of her family which she cherished so much. She was truly a special lady. I will miss her dearly, God Bless Myra Johnson, CHCN Co-worker and Friend

“ God bless and keep you all in His care. Rev 14:12-14 gave me great comfort in the loss of my mother. We so loved and appreciated Paul and T. for hosting our son, Kareem, while he was in school at Stanford. We enjoyed the visit to their home and the sharing of their love of God with us. Their song "I'll Be Seeing You"! Rest in peace T and Paul!
