“ Tim, you we're the best cousin a person could have. I will forever miss all the good time's we shared. It'll be hard to go thru life knowing you won't be there. If I would of known that our time together was going to be cut short we would of had to get out a lot more. It never mattered what we did, as long we were together things was always fun. So many good times together, I can remember. Those memories will never die. I just wish I good rewind time and change things. Every time I was feeling down or was going through tough times I always knew I could call my cousin Timmy up and instantly I would feel better, you was always there for me and I thank you for that. You will forever be in my heart and my memories. Best cousin's forever!

“ Dear son this is mom. I am going to miss you so much and you will be in my heart forever. when we have our BBQ's I will look over and see you at the grill cooking the way you loved to do. I will see and hear you everywhere I go. I couldn't let you go because its killing me. you were my baby boy and grew up to be a wonderful man and beautiful person to anyone who needed help. I will never let you go because you are in my heart FOREVER! I love you in life and I will always love you in death, but to be taken away from me so young is what's so unfair. Your up in heaven with Angie now, grandpas and grandmas too. I know you will be taken care of so please watch over us and keep all who love you safe.
