“ I have had the honor to know the Winn family for many years and the first word that comes to mind is "Precious". Their love for one another and their faith is an inspiration to all who know them. Todd, you will be missed terribly and yet, I am filled with joy to know you arrived in the arms of Jesus. You now have an entire "farm" to enjoy for eternity with no pain, no sorrow, nothing but joy. God bless you friend and God bless you Sherri, Keifer and Dakota. Hugs and much Love, Pam Hagemann

“ Todd had a servant's heart. His smiling face brought joy to the families of White Flag and the kids loved seeing him every week. Our team enjoyed serving with him too! He left an impression upon all of us. Todd continued to serve, even through his cancer treatments and after his surgeries. His love for Sherri and the boys was evident in his words and actions.

“ I met Todd only once, as I lived with his son Keifer for a year in Nashville. And one evening I had dinner with them and remember that Todd smiled a lot and he had a warm presence about him. He didn't talk about heavy things, politics, religion, conspiracies... he seemed to care simply about the people around the table and sharing a good story. Todd seemed like a simple man, a content man. And those are the kind of folks you want to love and be loved by. I only met Todd once, but I'll remember him a thousand times fondly
